DELHI PROVINCE FIRE SERVICE (GENERAL) RULES

(Rules framed under Section 25 of the United Provinces Fire Service Act, 1944 as extended to the Delhi Province).

1. Preliminary.—These Rules may be called “Delhi Province Fire Service (General) Rules, 1948”.

2. Definition.—In these Rules unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context Act means the United Provinces Fire Service Act, 1944 as extended to the Delhi Province.

3. Administration of the Service.—Subject to the general control of the Chief Commissioner, the administration of the Delhi Fire Service shall be vested in the Chief Fire Officer who will be responsible for making standing orders regarding

- (i) The training, discipline and good conduct of the members of the Delhi Fire Service ;
- (ii) Their speedy attendance with all necessary appliances and equipments on the occasion of an alarm of fire ;
- (iii) The maintenance of the Service in a due state of efficiency ; and
- (iv) The submission of fire reports.

4. (a) When proceeding to the scene of a fire all fire service appliances and vehicles will sound a fire bell. They will also be equipped with a green flashing light in a prominent position in the front of the vehicle to aid traffic control constables to identify them easily. All other traffic shall be drawn up to the left and stop so as to allow free and unhampered passage to fire vehicles and appliances.

(b) On the return journey the fire bell will not be sounded nor the green flashing light operated.

5. Punishment.—(a) Punishment as described under Section 8 of the Act may be awarded by the Chief Fire Officer to the members of the Delhi Fire Service of the rank of Head Leading Fireman or below.

(b) The Chief Fire Officer may authorise any officer of the Service not below the rank of the Fire Station Officer to award punishment as follows :—

Drill, extra guard, fatigue or other duties for a term not exceeding 3 days.

6. Award of Compensation under Section 16.—Upon receipt of a claim under sub-section (ii) of section 16 of the Act, the District Magistrate shall, after obtaining the report of the Fire Station Officer and making such further inquiry as he may consider necessary, assess the compensation, if any, due to the claimant.

7. In making the assessment the District Magistrate shall take into consideration the degree to which the claimant's property was itself endangered by the fire and the extent to which the action had protected it.

8. The District Magistrate shall pass an order indicating the amount of compensation which he has assessed and the party liable to pay it and shall cause a copy of the order to be served upon both parties.

9. Procedure under section 19.—Whenever it is required to obtain information under section 19 regarding any building, the Superintendent of Police, Chief Fire Officer and Deputy Chief Fire Officer shall give or cause to be given to the occupier of the premises notice in writing indicating the items upon which information is required and the period, being not less than 24 hours, within which it is to be furnished.

10. Whenever it appears necessary to enter any premises for the purposes of sub-section (ii) of Section 19 of the Act, the officer making the entry shall give to the occupier not less than 24 hours notice stating the date and time, of his intention to do so.

11. No entry shall be made under section 19 of the Act between sunset and sunrise.

12. The officer making any entry under Section 19 of the Act shall, to the greatest extent possible, have regard to the social and religious usages of the premises and of its occupier.

13. False reports.—(i) Whenever it appears to the Officer-in-Charge of a fire station that the report of any fire has been made falsely and that the person making such report has done so otherwise than in good faith, he shall send a copy of the report with his opinion, if any, to the Superintendent of Police.

(ii) The Superintendent of Police, may after making such inquiry as he considers necessary, order that a complaint be filed in a court having jurisdiction to try the offence.

By order,

N. M. PATNAIK,

Home Secretary
to the Chief Commissioner, Delhi.
